COUNSEL FOR THE ACTING GENERAL COUNSEL'S OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENT'S REQUEST FOR EXTENTION OF TIME TO SUBMIT EXCEPTIONS

Counsel for the Acting General Counsel hereby OPPOSES Respondent's September 6, 2012, Request for Extension of Time to Submit Exceptions.

The lone reason Respondent gives for its requested two month extension is the desire to participate in the Board's Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") process. However, this case is inappropriate for ADR. The case involves a single unlawful termination and a single unlawful rule. Counsel for the Acting General Counsel submits that there is nothing to negotiate—Respondent must comply with Judge Pollack's Decision and Order. This is also a case delayed for months by Respondent's refusal to comply with a properly issued subpoena. For these reasons, the Acting General Counsel will not agree to participate in ADR and OPPOSES Respondent's request for extension of time.
